

Starships, Shuttles, & Starbases

Artemis, U.S.S. Federation starship, Intrepid-class. The starship Artemis transported Captain Melanie Leeson to Utopia Planitia Fleet Yards to take command of the U.S.S. Trailblazer. The Artemis is part of the 5th Exploratory Task Force.

U.S.S. Artemis

Avenger, U.S.S. Federation starship, Defiant-class. Rob Stuart's friend and former Starfleet Academy roommate, Captain Benjamin Goodman, once commanded the Avenger. U.S.S. Providence security chief Lieutenant Yoshi Nakamara once served as a junior security officer on the Avenger. The Avenger was a participant of Task Force 82 sent to defend Earth against the Vendoth invasion in 2376.

Chagala Naval Yards. Starship construction facility orbiting Tellar. The Intrepid-class starship U.S.S. Providence was built at Chagala Naval Yards.

Coronado, U.S.S. Federation starship, Ericsson-class, Starfleet registry NCC-81913. The Coronado is one of the ships assigned to the 5th Exploratory Task Force.

Decker. Type-14 science shuttle assigned to the Ericsson-class U.S.S. Providence. The Decker, named for Starfleet Captain Willard Decker, was destroyed by an attack by the Tranak on New Earth.

Defender, U.S.S. Federation starship, Defiant-class. Participant of Task Force 82, under the command of Captain Robert P. Stuart, sent to defend Earth against the Vendoth invasion in 2376.

Starships, Shuttles, & Starbases

Eclipse*, U.S.S. Federation starship, Nova-class. Part of the 5th Exploratory Task Force. The Eclipse was assigned to study the Hebrews discovered on Jarek III by the starship Providence.

U.S.S. Eclipse

Eisenhower*, U.S.S. Federation starship, Excelsior-class. Rescued crew of U.S.S. Providence, NCC 76037 and transported them to Starbase 82.

Ericsson*-class starship. Small long-range scout vessel with the primary mission of mapping and surveying unexplored regions outside of Federation space. Ericsson-class starships are equipped with a holographic cloaking device used for defense against superior hostile forces and for surveillance of primitive cultures. Ericsson-class starships are 141 meters long and have 8 decks. Although these little starships are classified as scouts, they are equipped with advanced weaponry for defense if needed. Starfleet has authorized the construction of 26 Ericsson-class starships. This class starship is named for Viking explorer Leif Ericsson.

Ericsson-class starship

Ericsson*, U.S.S. Federation starship, Starfleet registry NCC-81900. First starship of its class, entered active service on stardate 53397 under the command of Captain Isak Ben-Yosef.

U.S.S. Euphrates

Euphrates*, U.S.S. Danube-class runabout assigned to the Intrepid-class U.S.S. Providence, Starfleet registry NCC-73300. The Euphrates, piloted by Lieutenant Commander Blake Adams, transported Captain Robert P. Stuart to the Providence when he first took command.

Exploration, U.S.S. Federation starship, Intrepid-class. Participant of Task Force 82, under the command of Captain Robert P. Stuart, sent to defend Earth against the Vendoth invasion in 2376.

Harrell Shipyards. Starship construction facility orbiting Catulla. The Ericsson-class starships are constructed at Harrell Shipyards.

Intrepid-class starship. Type of Federation spacecraft used primarily for exploration. The first U.S.S. Providence was an experimental variant of the Intrepid-class, the first starship to include a holographic cloaking device.

Kennedy, U.S.S. Federation starship, Constitution-class, Starfleet registry NCC-1963. The Kennedy disappeared approximately 60 years before into a spatial anomaly. The U.S.S. Providence found the Kennedy adrift near Tranak space.

Majestic, U.S.S. Federation starship, Sovereign-class. Flagship for the 5th Exploratory Task Force under the command of Commodore Charles Gardner.

Marco Polo, U.S.S. Federation starship, Ericsson-class, Starfleet registry NCC-81901. Second Ericsson-class starship to be constructed. The Marco Polo developed a problem with its warp core during final systems testing and had to be towed to Starbase 82 for repairs. The Marco Polo was renamed U.S.S. Providence under the command of Captain Robert P. Stuart.

Monarch, U.S.S. Federation starship, Sovereign-class, Starfleet registry NCC-88522. Commissioned July 21, 2378. Captain Robert P. Stuart accepted command of the Monarch to undergo a mission to unexplored space beyond Mira along the galactic meridian.

U.S.S. Monarch

Nairobi, U.S.S. Federation starship, Excelsior-class. The Nairobi, under the command of Captain Harrison Tanaka, was the only starship left to defend Starbase 82 when the Vendoth attacked Earth in 2376.

Pioneer-class starship. Medium-range cruiser, capable of sustained high-warp velocities. The prototype was designed to be a rescue ship to rendezvous with the U.S.S. Voyager as it traveled from the Delta Quadrant. The prototype U.S.S. Pioneer, under construction at Utopia Planitia Shipyards was destroyed in 2376 during the Vendoth invasion. The U.S.S. Trailblazer is the second ship of this class. A third Pioneer-class starship, the U.S.S. Swift began construction in 2378.

Pioneer-class starship

Pioneer, U.S.S. Federation starship, Intrepid-class. Participant of Task Force 82, under the command of Captain Robert P. Stuart, sent to defend Earth against the Vendoth invasion in 2376.

Powell, U.S.S. Federation starship, Galaxy-class. The Powell is under the command of Captain Benjamin Goodman and is part of the 5th Exploratory Task Force recently assigned to the region of space surveyed by the U.S.S. Providence.

Starships, Shuttles, & Starbases

Providence, U.S.S. Federation starship, Intrepid-class variant, Starfleet registry NCC-76037. First starship to bear the name, named in honor of the sloop that was commanded by John Paul Jones during the American Revolutionary War. The Providence was Captain Robert P. Stuart's first command. The Providence only served eight months before its untimely destruction by an unknown element in the atmosphere of Trilarnex II that attached itself to the hull of the starship when it landed on that world. The entire crew was able to evacuate before the ship's destruction, while enroute to Starbase 82.

U.S.S. Providence

Providence, U.S.S. Federation starship, Ericsson-class, Starfleet registry NCC-81901. Second starship to bear the name, originally named U.S.S. Marco Polo. Captain Robert P. Stuart commanded this U.S.S. Providence from stardate 53431 to stardate 55344. Under his command, the U.S.S. Providence has surveyed and mapped most of two previously unexplored sectors in the Beta Quadrant and has been involved in five first contacts with alien species. Providence was the lead ship of Task Force 82 sent to aid the defense of Earth against a Vendoth invasion fleet in 2376. Commander Blake Adams is currently in command of the Providence. The Providence was assigned to the 5th Exploratory Task Force under the command of Commodore Charles Gardner on stardate 55237.

U.S.S. Providence

Rapier, U.S.S. Federation starship, Katana-class. Participant of Task Force 82, under the command of Captain Robert P. Stuart, sent to defend Earth against the Vendoth invasion in 2376.

U.S.S. Rapier, Katana-class starship (designed by A. Varvaresos)

Starships, Shuttles, & Starbases

Republic, U.S.S. Federation starship, Ambassador-class. Former posting of Charles Gardner (CO), Robert P. Stuart (XO/2nd officer), and Blake Adams (CONN officer). Admiral Robert Hathaway also served on this starship for a few months as commanding officer (his first command) during his career.

U.S.S. Republic

Spectre, U.S.S. Federation starship, Defiant-class. Participant of Task Force 82, under the command of Captain Robert P. Stuart, sent to defend Earth against the Vendoth invasion in 2376.

Starbase 82. Federation starbase located about halfway between Earth and the survey area assigned to the U.S.S. Providence. Starbase 82 is currently under the command of Admiral Martin Dean. Melanie Leeson and Janice (Edwards) Stuart were both posted to Starbase 82 before serving on the starship Providence.

U.S.S. Trailblazer

Victorious, U.S.S. Federation starship, Defiant-class. Assigned to 5th Exploratory Task Force.
